Netherlands confirms commitment to Sh1.5b Blue Economy project in Turkana

BY KAZUNGU CHAI (PCO)

ining, Economy, and -Maritime Affairs Cabinet Secretary Salim Mvurya has welcomed assurance from the Government of the Netherlands that a proposed Sh1.5 billion project to spur the potential of the blue economy and fisheries in Lake Turkana is still on course.

Mvurya expressed optimism that the mega-project, which cuts across Turkana and Marsabit counties, will benefit the residents of the two counties once it kicks off.

"We have had very good bilateral relations with the Netherlands that date back many years, and the partnership has been great. The reason why the ambassador is here is that we have been working on a project in Lake Turkana which will cost 10 million Euros, approximately Sh1.5 billion," the CS said.

The Cabinet Secretary spoke when he addressed the media after a meeting with outgoing Netherlands Ambassador Maarten Brouwer, who paid him a courtesy call at his Ministry headquarters office in Nairobi.

"The ambassador has come to assure us that even though he has completed his assignment in Kenya, this partnership will continue," the CS said.

He pointed out that some basic activities of the Sh1.5 billion project have commenced, but the main thrust will begin earnestly in September this year.

The other projects which the governments of Kenya and the Netherlands have been partnering in are in the areas of maritime security and maritime vessel building, the CS
